

Marat Schacht aka Mr.Magneto – DJ and Producer

Mr. Magneto aka Marat Schacht, was born in Kamchatka, Russia and moved to Germany 1992. In the year 2000, he began collecting vinyls and djing which turned into a serious addiction! Powered and inspired by the big DJ's playing the big events, Marat soon found himself spinning at festivals like Nature One in Germany and Queens Day in Amsterdam. His dj sets are based on new electronic influences as well as old school and atmospheric sounds. In the last few years, he has taught himself to play the keyboard, built up his studio, and began to produce his own tracks. He shares this passion with his brother Viktor who is also a dj. The brothers inspire each other and their goal is to have fun and share love, peace & house with the people.

In 2006, Eddie Amador recognized Magneto's talent as a producer and signed "SCREAM MY NAME" to his Mochicoprimo! label. The future is looking quite electric for Mr. Magneto!
